

We in Our Garden state of New Jersey, love the freedom of no telemarketers. We will always fight this issue, and any thing else that has to do with this subject. It is very nice not to have the phone ring a hundred times after you arrive home from a stressful day at work. We wish to keep this do not call alive and well. It is time our constituents listen to us for a change.

KEEP THE DO NOT CALL ALIVE!!